

Paper Construction: Given an angle, draw in the bisector of that angle.

Fold the piece of paper so that one ray of the angle lies upon the other. Crease the paper down this line, making sure your crease goes through the vertex. Then unfold the paper. The fold should bisect the angle. Use a straight-edge to draw a line down the fold.

